To Whom It May Concern:

As you are aware, our mutual client is in active bankruptcy and is requesting services offered by the Homeownership Preservation Foundation (HPF) and its network of HUD approved counseling agencies. Your client has an opportunity to attend free financial counseling sessions with HPF regarding the property listed above.

In order to continue with our services please sign and date below to indicate consent for your client to attend these coaching sessions. These sessions may include a tri-party call between the client, the counselor and their Servicer if the client desires to get any clarification on their mortgage.
